Message from the Chief of Police

Public safety is a community effort. Peaceful neighborhoods across the nation are created and maintained through partnerships with law enforcement, citizens, community organizations and businesses.

That collaborative spirit is especially alive in Springfield. For many years, the men and women of the Springfield Police Division have been privileged to work alongside the people of our community with the common goal of public safety, and 2011 was no exception to that shared commitment.

In 2011, the Springfield Police Division answered 64,791 calls for service and made 4085 arrests due to the diligent work of our men and women in uniform along with the active participation of our citizens.

Last year, volunteers from the Citizen's Police Academy Alumni Association contributed 2094 hours of their time, valued at $44,727, toward support of public safety efforts. Local businesses and private benefactors donated over $15,000 to benefit Operation Thanksgiving, Operation Santa and other charitable programs organized by the Springfield Police Division's Community Response Team.

The advancements we made together in 2011 produced encouraging results. There is still work to do and more progress ahead of us. The women and men of the Springfield Police Division remained committed to future achievements and preserving the robust quality of life our community deserves.

On behalf of the uniformed staff, civilian employees and volunteers, I thank the people of Springfield for the honor to serve you. It is with your cooperation and faith that we stand strong to maintain peaceful neighborhoods where our child, families, and futures may thrive.

Stephen P. Moody

Organizational Chart

The Springfield Police Division is comprised of 126 sworn officers and 15 civilian staff members.

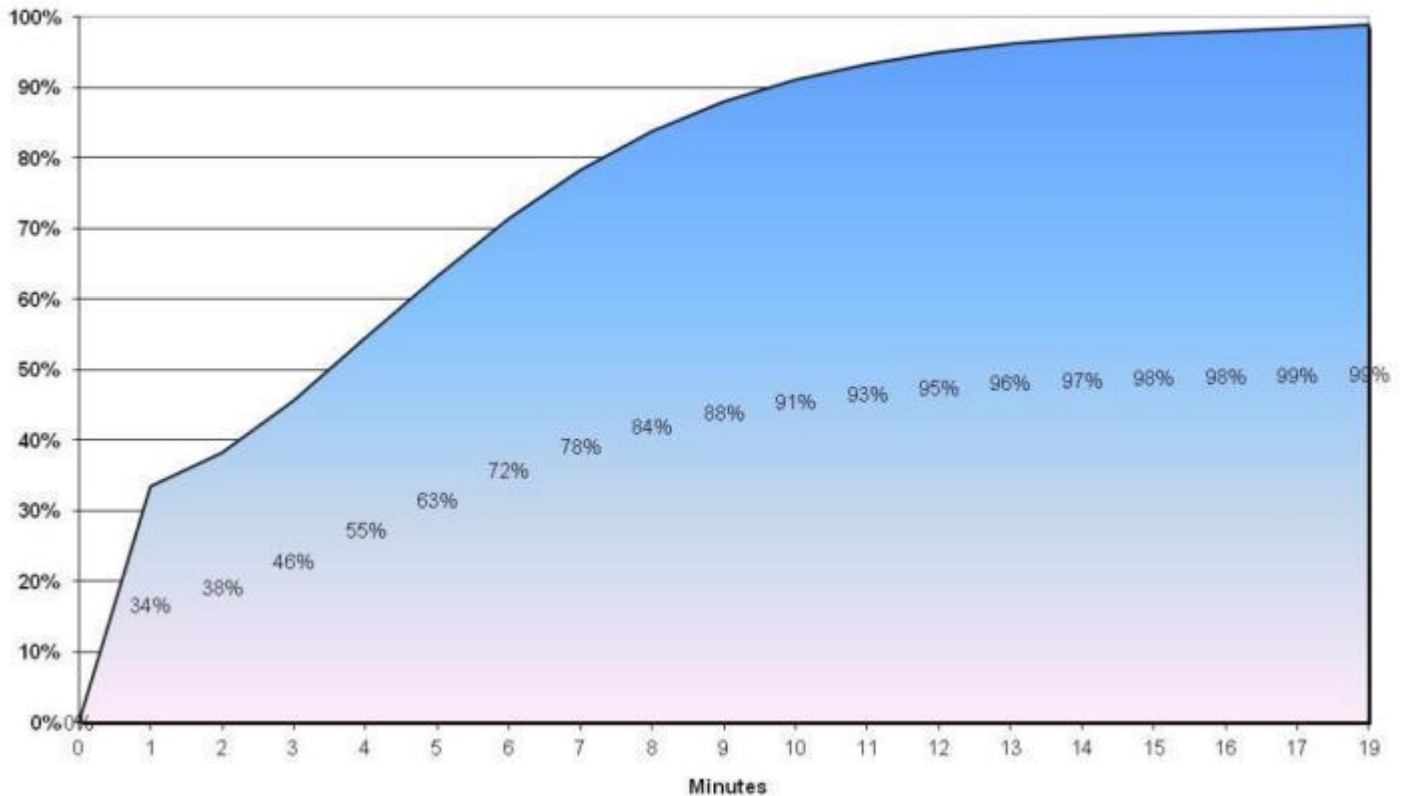

Uniform Patrol Sub-Division

The Springfield Police Division is comprised of three major sub-divisions. The Uniform Patrol Sub-Division is responsible for all calls for service, traffic crash investigations, School Resource Officers, DARE, the Community Response Team, and a great deal more.

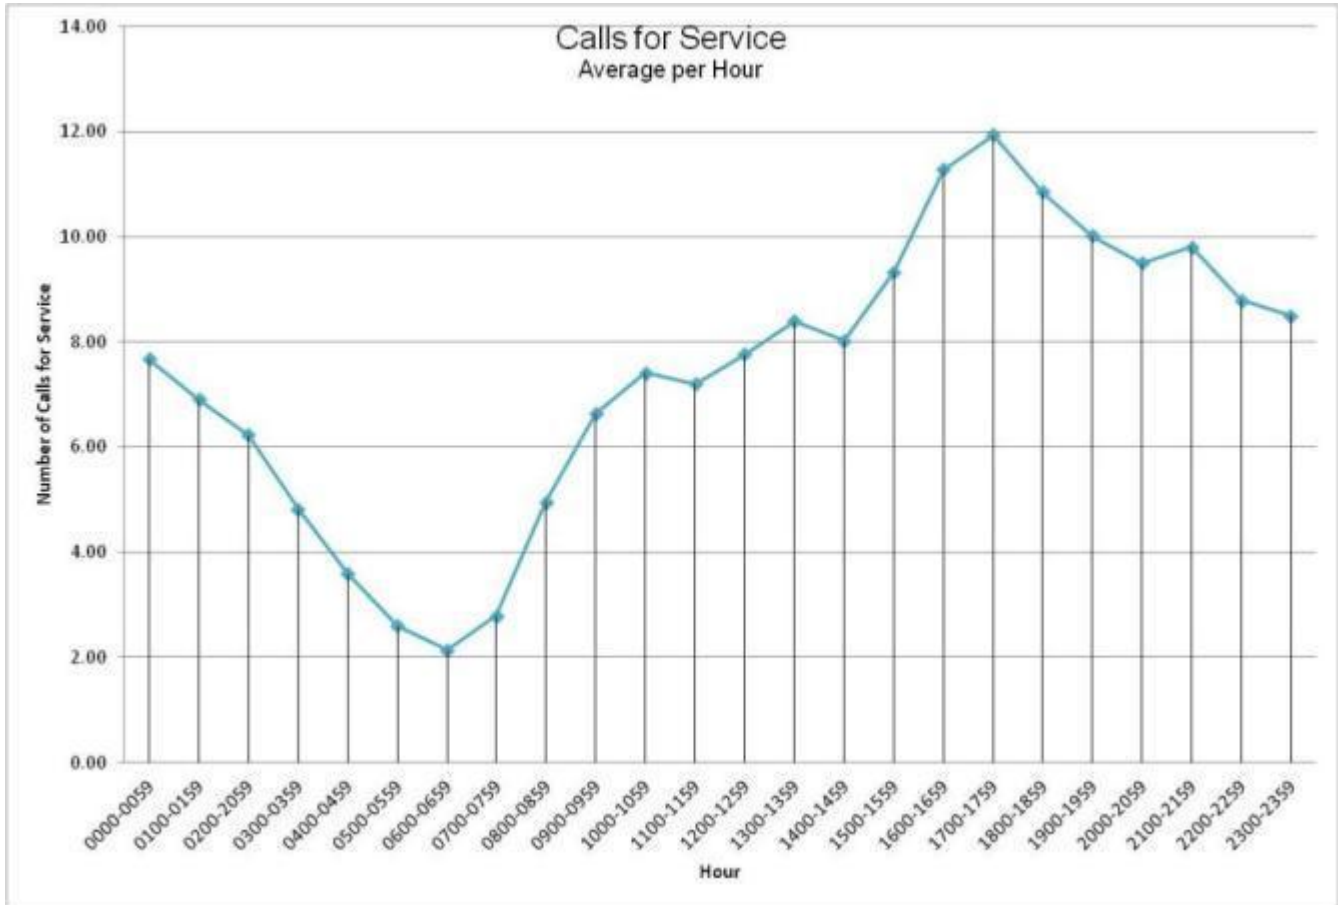

When the public calls for the assistance of a Police Officer generally a Uniform Patrol Officer is the first person to respond. Prompt response to calls for police assistance is one important aspect of the Uniform Patrol Officer's job. In 2011 the Springfield Police Division's Uniform Patrol Officers responded to 55% of all calls for service within four (4) minutes of dispatch. Calls are answered in order of seriousness first, with those calls involving danger to life and property coming first. Less serious calls, such as a parking complaint or a barking dog can be delayed when more serious calls are present.

2011 Response Time Analysis
Dispatch to Arrival

The Springfield Police Division makes staffing decisions, in part, based on the time of day that calls for service are received. Peak hours, during 2011, were from 1 PM to midnight. The division averages more than 8 calls, per hour (per day) during this peak time.

Community Response Team

The Community Response Team actively works on non-traditional policing projects within the community and at the division. During 2011, in addition to attending and participating in numerous neighborhood meetings and crime prevention presentations they were involved in the following:

- Conducted ‘Reality Based’ firearms training for police division officers during in-service 2011. This training was held at the former Mercy Medical Center. The CRT along with role players from the Citizens Police Academy Alumni Association held this training over a six week period.
- Through generous donations from the Elks Lodge #51 and Jim Twiggs Allstate Insurance, the CRT, again, held the annual Bicycle Camp. 110 children attended the 2-week program and learned about safe bicycle riding techniques and team building skills. During the camp they traveled to many locations in Springfield and Clark County via the Park District’s bicycle trails.
- The CRT was able to obtain a generous donation from the 800 Paint Place for paint and supplies so that the staircase leading from the headquarters garage to the police command center, or Officer-in-Charge’s (OIC) office could be repainted. Prior to the renovation the staircase was dark and painted with colors some suspect were popular in the 1980’s. The CRT members and volunteers from the Citizens Police Academy Alumni Association completed the cleaning, painting and updating.
- The CRT conducted a Neighborhood Block Party at the substation on Johnny Lytle St. in partnership with Fellowship Christian Church. The party included live Bluegrass music, children’s activities, a visit from Rambo (our police K-9), as well as a Llama. The event was free for the 250 area residents and children who attended.

- The CRT and Police Division conducted the 3rd Annual Law Camp at Hayward Middle School. This event provides a behind the scenes look at law enforcement,, for youth, and is modeled after our highly successful Citizens Police Academy. 45 local students attended.
- The CRT organized a Blue Mass at St. Raphael Church to commemorate the 10th anniversary of the September 11th tragedy. Local law enforcement, fire and EMS personnel attended the mass.
- Two members of the CRT attended the Clark County Leadership Academy in 2011. Off. Rich and Sgt. Tedeschi began their venture with the academy in September of 2011 and graduated in March of 2012. The 8-session program focused on the strengths and history of the Springfield-Clark County area. The course is available to all and provides an opportunity to network with a variety of businesses and organizations from our area.
- In 2011 the CRT participated in the first ever career day at Lincoln School. This event provided 4th and 5th graders the opportunity to meet with a police officer, discuss the daily work of police officers and ask any questions they had about the career.
- The CRT joined, again in 2011, with partner Target, to hold “National Night Out,” on the City Hall plaza.. National Night Out is a community gathering aimed at bringing the community together for fun and socializing. This year’s event included free hot dogs and drinks provided by Speedway and EBY Brown, a bounce house and other children’s activities visit from the Dayton Dragons mascot Heater added to the fun. There were many other participants, including the Air National Guard Security Forces, Clark County Combined Health District, Allstate Insurance, Ohio State Highway Patrol, DARE, All Occasion Entertainment, The Generations Band, Springfield Fire Rescue Division, Citizens Police Academy Alumni Association, and many others. Approximately 600 members of the community attended.

- The CRT ended 2011 with the holiday programs of Operation Thanksgiving and Operation Santa. These long term community outreach programs provide food and toys to those members of our community in need. Funds for the program are provided via donations from Meijer, Wal-Mart, the Springfield Command Officers Association, the Springfield Police Patrolmen's Association, the Citizens Police Academy Alumni Association, along with students from Shawnee High School, Springfield High School and private donations. Nineteen families were provided with traditional Thanksgiving dinners. Twenty-seven families, with 68 combined children, were assisted with Christmas dinner and gifts. The event was topped off with a Christmas luncheon with a visit from Santa at the substation. Our friends at Southbrook Care Center provided the meal for those attending.

School Resource Officers

Five (5) full time police officers are assigned to work directly with the Springfield City School district. These School Resource Officers, known as SRO's, perform many functions within the schools. Perhaps one of their most important tasks is working to develop positive relationships between students and police officers. They interact, daily, with the students in several unique law enforcement capacities such as crime prevention practices, understanding the consequences of life choices and the Clark County Safe Communities Coalition.

In 2011 the SRO's staged the, "Every 15 Minutes," program at Kenton Ridge High School. This one day event was a simulated, or "mock," crash involving a high school student and alcohol that resulted in their "death." To dramatize the event for the other students one high school student was removed from class every fifteen minutes and kept from family and friends. The effect on the students is dramatic, as it allows them to briefly experience what it could be like to lose someone to an alcohol related crash. The goal, of course, being a reduction in alcohol related motor vehicle crashes.

DARE/Clark State Community College

The Springfield Police Division has two (2) D.A.R.E. officers. During the summer they teach “Safety City” to 5,6, and 7 year olds. Safety City is a joint program with the Springfield Pilot Club aimed at home and personal safety for the young children. 400 students attended in 2011. Additionally, the DARE officers worked with 800 fifth grade and 800 seventh grade students in 2011, teaching them the current DARE curriculum. The DARE Officers were also active with 680 elementary students in the third grade, “Safety Belt” program, which promotes seat belt usage while in a motor vehicle. The DARE officers also join the young people of our community in “fun” events such as skate parties and the Memorial Day Parade

The division has two (2) officers assigned to work at Clark State Community College. The officers are responsible for all providing security and law enforcement for Clark State’s 3600 students, two campuses, and the Kuss Auditorium. 2011 was the third year for this partnership. In addition to their role as law enforcement officers, the Clark State Officers work to assist the members of the Clark State community. They actively mentor a group of student “cadets,” teaching them about law enforcement and life. They also are partners on a Behavioral Intervention Team “BIT,” assisting students, faculty, and staff with regard to mental, and emotional, health issues, as needed.

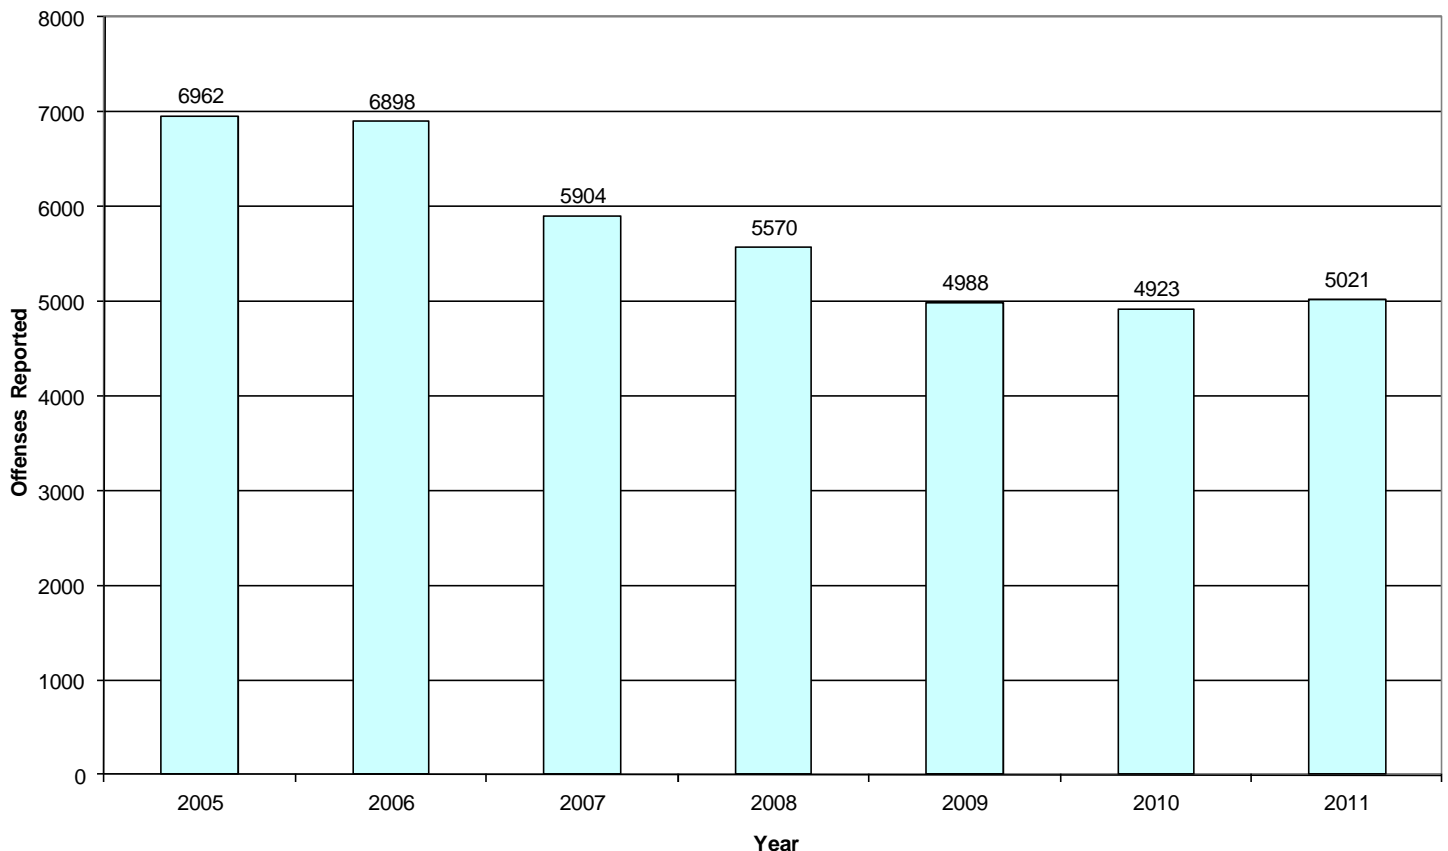

Investigations Sub-Division

The Uniform Patrol Officer is the most visible member of the Springfield Police Division. Often, when they respond to a crime an arrest can be made at that time or a warrant will be filed for the arrest of the suspect. However, some cases require a great deal of additional investigation. Those crimes are assigned to the members of the Investigations Sub-Division. The Investigations Sub-Division is comprised of three specialized units. The 'Intelligence' unit investigates narcotics crime and conspiracy crime. The 'Crimes against Persons' unit investigates all crimes involving personal injury or threat of injury. These include assault, homicide, rape, and robbery. The 'Crimes against Property' unit investigates all crimes involving the loss or damage of property. These include burglary, theft, motor vehicle theft, and arson. The crime rate in Springfield (a combination of these crimes) dropped significantly in 2009 and has stabilized.

Index Crime

The FBI defines the Index crime rate as the sum of eight offenses (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny, motor vehicle theft, and arson) which serves as an indicator of the jurisdictions crime experience.

Blue Mass

The first Blue Mass ever held in Springfield was celebrated at St. Raphael Catholic church on Sunday, September 11th, 2011 in remembrance of those police officers, firefighters, EMS and Military personnel who died on 9/11. The Mass was also offered in honor of all current police officers, firefighters, EMS and Military personnel for their courage and service. Current, and retired, members of the Springfield Police Division, Springfield Fire Division, Wittenberg Police Department, Clark County Sheriff's Department, along with many village law enforcement agencies and township fire divisions attended.

The history of the Blue Mass is said to be as follows: "In 1934 the first Blue Mass was started by Father Thomas Dade in Baltimore, Maryland. About 1,000 policemen and firemen marched in uniform into St. Patrick's Catholic Church in Washington D.C. This was the marking of an annual tradition in the Northeastern cities of the United States which has spread to every state."
