City Commission to Hold Public Meeting on 2019 Budget

SPRINGFIELD, OH (Oct. 19, 2018) — Springfield City Commission will hold a public input session on its goals and objectives and the 2019 budget at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 23, 2018.

The public is invited to hear a brief overview of the 2019 budget and will have an opportunity to provide input on community priorities.

“It’s important to us that we engage residents in all aspects of local government, and the 2019 budget is a key part of that involvement,” said Springfield Mayor Warren Copeland. “We plan to continue fulfilling the promises made with the 2017 passage of the tax levy, and we want input from our residents on the 2019 budget.”

The public will learn how tax dollars are allocated, as well as how the City’s budgetary submissions fulfill the goals and objectives put forth by the City Commission in April.
