Woman Sought in Connection With Missing Children Found Tuesday

SPRINGFIELD, OH (February 27, 2019) — Springfield police are searching for a woman in connection with two missing children found by Springfield police following an Amber Alert Tuesday night, Feb. 26.

A 4-year-old and 8-month-old were found at 1204 Mound Street after the resident saw the Amber Alert on television, according to Springfield police. The resident reported that Khadejha Coran, 22, of 930 Sunset Ave., had dropped the children off around 3 p.m. Tuesday and had not reported any issues at that time, according to police. Coran said she would return in a few hours to pick the children up.

Both children were handed over to Children's Services. Coran is sought on charges of abduction and interference with custody. She is described as 5'6" with black hair and brown eyes.

Anyone with information regarding Coran's whereabouts is asked to contact the Springfield Police Division at 937-324-7680.
