23rd Annual CultureFest Takes Place Tomorrow

SPRINGFIELD, OH (September 27, 2019) — CultureFest, a downtown celebration of diversity in the Springfield community, will take place for the 23rd time tomorrow on the City Hall Plaza from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m.

The festival features:

- Dance and music entertainment on three stages and strolling musicians
- A children's tent featuring crafts and foreign language education
- A tour of Gammon House departing from KeyBank at 2 p.m.
- Food court featuring international and American cuisine
- Merchandise and information vendors throughout the plaza

CultureFest is supported through donations from individuals and organizations. Premier and prime sponsors for 2019 CultureFest include: Mercy Health-Springfield and Urbana; The Springfield Foundation; Assurant; and Fifth Third Bank.

The annual celebration is a collaborative effort between the City of Springfield Community Development Department with neighborhood and organizational partners committed to growing unity through diversity.
