Suspect Sought in Hobby Lobby Robbery

A man who robbed a Hobby Lobby store on Feb. 19 is being sought by police, and investigators have released photos hoping that the public can assist with locating him.

The robber pulled a black mask over his mouth as he walked into the store on 2200 N. Bechtle Ave. around 11:30 a.m. Wednesday and approached a cashier. He handed the employee a note that read, "Open the register and empty out all the money," and reached across the counter to open the drawer himself. When the employee told him that the drawer was locked, the robber left the building.

The robber left on foot toward North Bechtle Avenue. He is described as a white male, 5 feet, 9 inches, 150 pounds and wearing a grey hooded sweatshirt and gloves, a black jacket and hat and black shoes with white trim.

Anyone with information about the suspect is asked to contact police at 937-324-7716.
